LIFT is for everyone who has been caught off guard by the pace & vulnerability of raising children, to remind us that our work is important and our time limited.

"Although we've never met, I love Kelly Corrigan like a friend. Her work gives me a rich sense of intimacy with someone who is full of life and hard-fought wisdom. She's hilarious, tender-hearted, tough, loyal, wild, and screwed-up -- like all the coolest women I know."

author of Bird by Bird and Traveling Mercies
