Dear Friends:

Last Thursday we had the good fortune of hosting Fr. Greg Boyle the founder of Homeboy Industries and author of "Tattoos on the Heart" at {pages} for a very special evening of story telling and impromptu fund raising. Thank you to all who joined us and our apologies for not better accommodating everyone with chairs. The evening was a warm gathering of community celebrating "Tattoos on the Heart" which left those in attendance both entertained and inspired by Fr. Greg's rare breed of storytelling. The unseasonably warm weather contributed to the success of the evening as guests enjoyed appetizers we had catered from Homegirl Cafe in our courtyard.

Thanks to the incredible generosity of so many in attendance, at the end of the evening we were able to present Fr. Greg with over $31,000 in donations to Homeboy Industries collected in a fishbowl at our front counter.

Many of you have since asked how you can help Homeboy Industries continue to provide a productive alternative to gang life. Here are a few ways: 1) Make a donation to Homeboy Industries - 130 W. Bruno Street, LA, CA 90012; 2) Visit Homegirl Cafe for breakfast or lunch or have them cater your next event; 3) spread the word about "Tattoos on the Heart"; buy multiple copies for friends and colleagues, help it become a NY Times bestseller and the next "Three Cups of Tea"; and 4) Check out the Homeboy Industries website www.homeboy-industries.org.

Warmly,

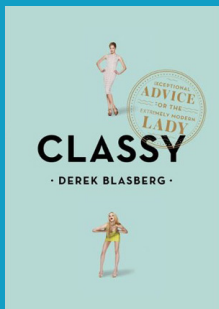

Margot, Patty and Linda and our fabulous staff

Recommended by recent guest Lynne Cox, The Wave, by Susan Casey is an incredible book about colossal, ship-swallowing rogue waves and the surfers who seek them out.

The personal account of Ingrid Betancourt's six years of captivity in the depths of the Colombian jungle as a prisoner of the FARC. The book is extremely well written and a riveting story.
